

Acumen Planned Giving

How many lives will you change through your own?

You have the power to change millions of lives for generations to come. When you leave a planned gift to Acumen, you are making a lasting investment into the kind of world you wish to build: one in which every person leads a dignified life, and the problems of poverty are solved through innovative social enterprises.

Your generosity will ensure that your values and personal legacy will continue on through the leaders and companies Acumen supports, and the millions of low income people who will benefit from their products and services. We have an ambitious goal to impact 1 billion lives by 2030, and your pledge will enable us to continue investing in social impact enterprises, entrepreneurs, and insights.

We invite you to learn more about what it means to be part of this special Acumen Partner community.

“Acumen found my head and my heart 10 years ago. When I think about my legacy, I can think of no finer non-profit than Acumen to carry on my values and my goals in promoting economic advancement for all. Making a gift to Acumen in my will ensures my values will live on for generations to come”

– Randy Kaufman, Planned Giving Partner
